The Honorable Arthur M. Hill
Chairman, National Security Resources
Board
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hill:

Referring to your letter of October 20th, I agree with you that the time has come, now that the National Security Resources Board is getting into its stride, to reexamine and improve upon the liaison arrangements between this Agency and NSRB. It seems likely that the time will come, if indeed it has not already arrived, when both NSRB and CIA will be aided in the satisfactory achievement of their missions by interchange of available intelligence and information on subjects which are of mutual concern.

Liaison between this Agency and other government offices in Washington is accomplished through Liaison Officers assigned to the Office of Collection and Dissemination. One of them, [redacted] has been instructed to work out with your people arrangements for the interchange of documentary materials, and for such direct contacts between your analysts and ours as may prove desirable. Please call upon him for any services which you feel CIA should perform for NSRB, and be assured that we will make every effort, compatible with our security regulations, to service NSRB needs.

STAT

[redacted] will establish contact with those NSRB officers mentioned in your letter whom he does not already know.

Allow me to express my appreciation of the hearty cooperation which CIA representatives have encountered in all echelons of NSRB.

Sincerely,

signed
